NINE MEN KILLED BY LANDSLIDE IN VIRGINIA

By Associated Press.

Roanoke, Va., May 7.—Nine men were killed and five others injured, three of them fatally, late yesterday evening by a slide of rock in the [illegible] end of tunnel No. 3 at Eggleston Springs, Giles county, on the Norfolk & Western railway. Railway contractors were engaged in double tracking the two tunnels at the point named, and while the tunneling force had removed the earth and stone for the railroad tracks at the point where the calamity occurred a huge slide of solid stone gave way on the mountain side and came down at an angle of about four degrees, striking the force of laborers and crushing out the life of nine men. One man was in a niche of the tunnel wall and escaped with slight injuries. A second man who stood on the outer edge of the slide was only slightly hurt, but three others were [illegible] so badly that it is feared they will die. The bodies of the other nine [illegible], four of whom are white, are still under the mountain slide. It seems to be [illegible] that the bodies can be recovered [illegible] as the rock will have to be [illegible] and removed piece [illegible].

BROTHER OF CZOLGOSZ TO BE KEPT IN A SAFE PLACE

[illegible] Angeles Police Acting under Instructions from Secret Service Bureau in Washington—Relative of McKinley's Assassin Under Surveillance After President's Departure.

By Associated Press.

Los Angeles, Calif., May 7.—Acting under instructions from the secret service bureau at Washington, the police today arrested a man who is suspected of being one of the four brothers of Czolgosz, the assassin of the late President McKinley.

Great secrecy has been maintained about the arrest and no information has been given out concerning the man. It is known, however, that he was arrested today and confined in the city jail. No charge has been lodged against him, the police simply detaining the man on suspicion until after President Roosevelt shall have left Los Angeles.

It is said that Czolgosz has been living in this city for several months, being employed in a tamale factory. His actions have been, it is said, not out of the ordinary, and no complaint is made of the man other than that of his relationship to the assassin of President McKinley.

ROOSEVELT SAYS PEOPLE OF WEST ARE AHEAD OF EAST

By Associated Press.

Redlands, Calif., May 7.—Today President Roosevelt was formally welcomed to California before a crowd estimated at 10,000. The president's special left Bardlow at 4:30 a. m. and arrived here at 9 a. m., on time to the minute.

In front of the Hotel Cruz Loma was packed a mass of humanity that stretched for two blocks east and west. The enthusiasm displayed must have realized the guest in whose honor the demonstrative fad been planned that California hospitality really was what he had heard it to be. At the east side of the grounds Company G, C. N. G., in fatigue and guns, made a [illegible] appearance. The New York society was at the south end along the west were to head the Y. M. C. A. cadets in uniform.

Spain All Along the Line.

[illegible] carriages in waiting took the [illegible] to the Cruz Loma hotel in the following order: Marshal and [illegible] mounted escorts, president and [illegible] C., Governor Gage, Teddy's Rough Riders, New York society, Y. M. C. A. [illegible]. The route was [illegible] all along the line. At the hotel was [illegible] were gathered in the [illegible] were opposite the [illegible] Miss [illegible] were stationed [illegible] at the foot of the [illegible] up for the occasion. [illegible] the president [illegible] of the [illegible] waved a welcome [illegible] young ladies were often raised in cheers. They were [illegible] the national [illegible].

President Roosevelt was presented to Governor Pardee and Lieut. Governor Adams. The party then took their places in the balcony, where all the members of the legislative committee and their ladies and prominent local committees were seated.

Just below the balcony were ranged the Grand Army veterans, while near by were Teddy's Terrors in their warlike costumes.

Mayor Fowler introduced Governor Pardee who, in a brief address, welcomed the president to California. Assembly Governor E. R. T. Johnson then delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the state legislature. The great throng onward itself hoarse when the president arose to deliver his address. It was several minutes before he could proceed. He said, in part:

A Great State.

"I am glad, indeed, to have the chance to visit this wonderful and beautiful state, but I did not have to come to know you or like you, for I know what the sons and daughters of the state have done. If I did not appreciate their achievements I would indeed be a poor American. But for the country itself, I had been told so much of its beauty and its wonders, I had never realized or could not realize in advance all I have seen. Coming down over the mountains I was impressed with the thought more and more of what can be done with the wise use of water and the forests of this state. The people have grown to realize that it is indispensable to the future of the country to conserve and properly use the water and to preserve the great mountain forests. All this great valley shows what can be accomplished by irrigation and it is to be congratulated that your settlers had the foresight to take advantage of it.

"The irrigation system should be extended and widened. Forest and stream should be [illegible] to build up the interests of the home maker, for he is the man we want to encourage in every possible way. I think our citizens are realizing more and more that we want to perpetuate the things of both use and beauty. Beauty has its place and you want to make this state more even than it is now—the garden spot of a continent. I congratulate you on the way you have built up these new cities in a way to illustrate the virtue of pioneer citizens and at the same time avoiding the roughness characteristic of so many new settlements. An example has been set for the coming generations to abide by.

Most Important of All.

"The young men must be impressed with the idea that whatever we have of soil, climate or conditions whatsoever, it must be the man who does the most toward making a state or a nation's progress and greatness. I congratulate you on your country, your oranges, your cities, your ranches, your industrial and agricultural development and, above all, on the quality of your citizenship.

"Of all who are here to greet me, I prize most the presence of those men who fought in the great war (turning toward the Grand Army veterans.) Two years ago you welcomed here your comrade and my chief, the late President McKinley. He did his part in war as in peace and if we had not been for the efforts that you and he put forth we should have had neither an American country nor an American president today. In war it is necessary to have arms and accouterments, but the fundamental necessity is to have men. You fought for liberty under the law, not license. You fought for that freedom that makes every man free. The most dangerous man in any country is the man who does what is intended to array class against class.

The Future.

"Next, I greet the future. (Laughter.) The sight of these children convinces me of the truth of a statement just made to me when Governor Pardee declared there was no danger of race suicide in California. You have done well in raising oranges and I believe you have done better raising children. Children, I have just one word for you and it will apply to the older people as well. It is this: When you play, play hard, and when you work don't play at all. That's common sense for all of you.

"What strikes me most of all on this trip is that good Americans are good Americans from one end of the land to the other.

"The wits of man cannot devise a law to make decent, a man who has not the spirit of decency in him, or to make the weaklings strong. A man's success is the sum total of his individual abilities. Demagogues are a curse to the community at large and the virtue that stays at home and bemoans the vice of the world is of no use.

Immediately after the close of his speech President Roosevelt was escorted to the dining room with his party the legislative party and the local reception committee. Governor Pardee sat on the president's right and Mayor Fowler on the left.

The affair was informal and there were no addresses.

Half an hour later the presidential party, the governor and other guests again entered the carriages and were driven over the city. The party left here at 3 o'clock for San Bernardino, where a short stop was made. The night will be spent at Riverside.

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, May 7.—Senator W. A. Clark of Montana has bought from Don Charles of the Republic mines, the famous Guadalupe Cave group of mines in Chihuahua, Mexico. Unconfirmed reports say the price was $500,000. It is known that Clark offered $450,000 for the property.

MAY BE COMMITTED TO INSANE ASYLUM

By Associated Press.

Port Arthur, Ont., May 7.—By an accident on the main line of the Canadian Pacific near Dexter station, 52 miles east of this place, 11 laborers imprisoned in the wreckage of a derailed work train were either killed outright or burned to death. Eight others were frightfully burned and a number of them will die.

The men were asleep when the train left the track. The train was running at high speed when it was derailed, presumably by the breaking of an axle. Every car left the track and plunged down an embankment into the ditch. The men who were killed were asleep in what is known as the "bunking car," which was attached to the rear of the train. There were 30 men in the car. It was crushed to kindling shell, killing some of the men outright and pinning others under the [illegible] they could not extricate themselves. Fire added its horror to the situation, the splintered woodwork being ignited by an overturned stove. The men who escaped injury at once went to work to liberate the imprisoned workers, but they were driven back and scalded by the flames which spread with [illegible] rapidity. One of the [illegible] succeeded in extricating [illegible] and rushing [illegible] out from under the wreckage. It is reported that several others [illegible] injured, were lying helpless in the [illegible]. The rescuers succeeded in getting through the [illegible] men, meanwhile the flames [illegible] fiercer and the men were [illegible] from the work of rescue [illegible] heat.

Vienna, May 7.—A decided optimistic feeling prevails in official circles regarding the relations between Turkey and Bulgaria, which are declared to have greatly improved within the last 24 hours. The probability of war between the two countries is now considered slight. The representative of the Associated Press is informed that official news has just been received here that the porte has withdrawn its note to Bulgaria.

The warlike feeling at Constantinople is believed to be disappearing. It is [illegible] that Turkey has very serious grounds for complaint against Bulgaria, but it is believed that the sultan is too clever to embark upon a war from which, no matter how victorious, he would gain nothing and in which he might lose everything. A Bulgarian band yesterday attempted to blow up a powder magazine at Adrianople. It was surprised by Turkish troops and a fight ensued in which many of the combatants were killed or wounded.

London, May 7.—The British government's attitude in the Balkan crisis may be summed up as being one of passive indifference. It is pointed out at the Britain [illegible] have their Great Britain is not bound by any treaties to intervene in behalf of Bulgaria. Although she was chiefly responsible for bringing Bulgaria into existence, Great Britain never undertook the preservation of Bulgaria's integrity, though pledged to it again in the clarity of the Ottoman empire. WOMEN CLERKS BARRED FROM DEPARTMENTS

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 7.—Secretary Shaw has issued an order prohibiting the employment of women clerks in the treasury department. The order will not affect those already employed, but will prevent the appointment of women to fill vacancies. The order was issued in response to a request from Chief Clerk Bell of the treasury department.

FIRST LAND BILL PASSED ON SECOND READING IN COMMONS

By Associated Press.

London, May 7.—The Irish land bill has passed its second reading in the house of commons by 443 to 26 votes.

In the house tonight, John Morley, Liberal, who was received with opposition cheers, said the bill was a bold and courageous measure and a revolutionary extension of the land purchase system. He had never known a bill could be so riddled with objections. Its remedies were abnormal, but it was a creature of social necessity; therefore he would support it. He said if this bill failed there would be no more purchases, because of the terms now offered by the landlords. The bill had many defective clauses which might entail its defeat, and it would save time if the Irish secretary, Mr. Wyndham, would point out what concessions he was prepared to make.

Continuing, Mr. Morley said the bill marked the collapse of the system by which England had governed Ireland since the union and that it would create fresh problems and inevitably lead to further changes. He declared himself strongly in favor of the principle of the bill.

Mr. Wyndham, the Irish secretary, said that there would be no retrenchment by the most extravagant government of Europe until Irishmen were made responsible and given their own parliament.

In winding up the debate, Mr. Wyndham made light of what he called the "bogey of home rule."

In dealing with the act of 1881 he asserted that it had created a strategic deadlock and that now both parties in the struggle desired to bury the ancient feud. Was the occasion to be allowed to pass, he asked, because a similar occasion had not arisen in England? Surely the fact that less than half a million pounds yearly was required from the imperial exchequer would not be an obstacle to prevent a settlement on the question of security. The best security was the unanimous desire of the whole people for a peasant proprietary, but the cash security was ample while past records of land purchase transactions showed there was little risk to the states. Mr. Wyndham said he could not go in by into the points and details which had been raised but he intimated his intention of discussing the first clause, which lays down the scales of reduction in council with members representing all interests [illegible] not with any pre-determined [illegible] pass it in its present [illegible] remark was greeted with [illegible] cheers.

Continuing, Mr. Wyndham [illegible] many points raised in the debate were matters for [illegible] committee. The conclusion of the government seemed logical. [illegible] at them in view of three [illegible] which it considered [illegible] to deal immediately with, [illegible] in Ireland, so cheapen an [illegible] dicial procedure and to protect the interests of the several [illegible] buyer. Irish secretary said he declared that the great occasion should not be lost [illegible] that he did not despair of [illegible] bill. With regard to the [illegible] the minimum price to be [illegible] persons in the congested [illegible] Wyndham said he foresaw [illegible] would endanger the passage [illegible] The division was then taken [illegible] bill passed its second reading.

In the debate of the house [illegible] ham's speech was interpreted [illegible] ing that the government [illegible] to consider reasonable [illegible] the bill.

MEMORIAL FOR COLORADO SPRINGS AT PRINTERS' HOME

At the annual convention of the International Typographical union at Washington, D. C., August 10, the delegates from Denver will urge that, instead of the massive boulder to be placed at the Printers home at Colorado Springs, that the monument to the late Amos Cummings take the shape of a library, to be erected at the home at a cost of $24,000.

The agitation for the library has already taken shape in Denver. It is suggested that the amount to be raised by the Amos Cummings memorial committee, $12,000, be added to a similar sum taken from the home fund, and that the entire sum be devoted to the erection of a building on the Printers home grounds, to be known as the "Amos Cummings Memorial Hall." The building will contain an assembly room with a seating capacity of 200 and a library and reading room. It is suggested that the building be of stone and conform in style of architecture with the main building.

The original recommendation of the memorial committee was that a huge boulder be placed on the grounds at a cost of $12,000. Amos Cummings was to be commemorated by a suitable decoration upon the granite. The statesman who so ably represented the state of New York in congress was a member of the printers union and the memorial seems to be a fitting tribute to what he accomplished for the printers of the country.

The Typographical union at Denver has taken favorable action upon the substitute and has instructed its delegates to the convention to work for it.

POSTMASTER WILL PREVENT [illegible]

By Associated Press.

Omaha, May 7.—A conference of Governor McKay, Adjutant General Culver and between 300 and 400 business men, was held here to discuss the strike situation. The governor made a lengthy address in which he urged the business men to meet the strikers and attempt to reach an agreement of some kind.

Adjutant General Culver spoke along the same lines as the governor and protested that in his judgment matters have not assumed a condition where the calling out of the state militia is necessary. His remarks were loudly cheered. Several of the labor leaders were present, but did not take part in the meeting. Nothing was done in the way of attempting a settlement of the difficulties.

By Associated Press.

Omaha, May 7.—Sheriff Power of this county tonight issued a proclamation to the people, especially to the strikers. He states that he has been called on by the chief of police of the city to assist in preserving order and that he has sworn in 60 deputies for that purpose. The proclamation asserts that every means will be used to prevent violence and that vehicles of all descriptions and drivers will receive full protection.

Secretary Wilcox of the Teamsters union, scoffed at the proposition to call out troops. He said the strikers were making no disturbances, and in proof of his assertion cited the fact that the police have not called upon them to make a single arrest except of several saloon keepers who have violated the mayor's proclamation closing their places.

"There is nothing for troops to do," he said. "There are 2,000 on strike who simply refuse to go to work. There are no men to take their places and soldiers could not force the strikers to go to work."

Seven saloon keepers have been arrested for opening their saloons and have been put under bonds to appear at a later date on a charge of violating the mayor's proclamation.

CONCLUDING SCENE VENEZUELAN NEGOTIATIONS

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 7.—Shortly before 7 o'clock the concluding scene in the Venezuelan negotiations was effected at the British embassy in the presence of Herbert W. Bowen, Venezuelan plenipotentiary; Signor Mayor des Planches, the Italian ambassador; Sir Michael Herbert, the British ambassador; Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German representative, and H. W. Dearing, the secretary of the British embassy.

Mr. Bowen signed with the three foreign representatives separate protocols for reference to The Hague tribunal of the question of preferential treatment for the blockading powers in the payment of their claims against Venezuela and immediately afterward there were signed the conventions providing for the settlement of the claims by the several commissions which are to meet at Caracas this summer. Mr. Bowen immediately cabled to President Castro the brief announcement:

"Last protocol signed."

NO SETTLEMENT REACHED IN IDAHO SPRINGS STRIKE

Idaho Springs, May 7.—No settlement has been reached in the strike at the Sun and Moon. After a conference with the operators lasting all day, President Moyer was unable to arrange a satisfactory settlement of differences. Mr. Moyer stated that he expected that an agreement would be reached soon, and that the proposition of the operators might be accepted. They agree to eight hours of actual work and the adjustment of the rate of wages to all classes of labor in the mines.

COLORADO SPRINGS BOND ISSUE.

[illegible]HOD ABOUT the most unique in the history of Colorado [illegible] for the water bonds voted by the city have yet found a buyer. What at first [illegible] appeared to be a severe [illegible] the [illegible] has apparently resulted in the most favorable [illegible] for the city that could possibly be expected. [illegible] bonds will not be sold for less than par. All [illegible] bidders will have to deposit a certified check for [illegible] per cent of the amount bid for the bonds, which will be returned to the unsuccessful bidders. The bonds will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, but no bid will be considered for less than par.

The issuing of bond proposals has not been a light undertaking, and [illegible] the people who have wanted them at the rate at which gold can be had; and [illegible] rather than pay the premium they have [illegible] per cent.

[illegible] rate and what is very significant at the same [illegible] a large amount of money is being diverted into [illegible] securities. The United States [illegible] has just [illegible] $100,000,000 in bonds over [illegible] at a handsome premium, [illegible] building activity. Again it must be borne in mind that the permit bond issue is a large one and the city of its size is not high considering that Colorado Springs is a western city.

It may be said also, that while Colorado Springs is amply able to meet every obligation and is a city rich and prosperous in every way, yet every large [illegible] like the present [illegible] little less desirable to the city fathers, therefore, to keep all obligations of this character within the lowest possible [illegible]

A DECISION FOR DENVER.

THE SUPREME COURT of this state yesterday rendered a decision in which it confirms the right of the city and county of Denver to include within its [illegible] the suburban towns such as Elyria, Globeville, Highlands and several other suburbs.

These towns have hitherto had separate charters and have strongly objected to being made a part of Denver, as provided for in the Lehlbach bill. They liked to be near Denver to trade or to do business with it, but disliked paying city taxes.

The decision against them was a sweeping one and it is now believed that the last vestige of opposition to the Lehlbach bill has been swept away. Inasmuch as the [illegible] of the city and county of Denver is being clarified, it is to be hoped that the people of the reorganized municipality will proceed to make for themselves a charter which will be sound, practical and complete, enabling them to govern themselves in a more upright and business like manner than has ever been known before.

A BAD BY-LAW.

[illegible] MEMBERS of the Democratic Press association of the state of Missouri have as one of their by-laws a proviso that all candidates of the party shall be supported by all members of the association. A motion [illegible] was at a recent meeting of the association abrogating this rule was suppressed.

It was very unfortunate that it was suppressed and it is a blunder to have such a rule in force and effect. It is subversive of that liberty of thought and action which every newspaper as well as an individual ought to exercise. For the good of the community and of the party and of the state no editor should subscribe to such a [illegible] by-law.

As a rule party newspapers will and ought to support party nominees, but when a nominee is notoriously unfit for office, even if not rejected, it should be the privilege and the duty of his party newspapers to refuse to give him their support.

In Missouri, especially in view of what has taken place in the last legislature, the nominees of all parties will be viewed with the gravest care and if candidates are put up who are unworthy the positions to which they aspire, they should be defeated and the newspaper best deserves the glory when it assists in such defeat.

During a test of the coast by firing at the forts a few days ago the clams took fright and went down so deep in the mud that they couldn't be dug up with a steam derrick. Our citizens do not propose to have the dictator respite carried on here are very much as everybody knows."

WANT TRUTH ABOUT PHILIPPINES CHARGES

The Albany Argus of May 1 contains the following account of a meeting held in that city under the auspices of Herbert Welsh and Matthew K. Shiften to discuss the alleged horrors in the Philippines by members of the United States army.

The meeting was non-partisan in its nature and was presided over by Frederick W. Cameron, Esq.

Mr. Cameron said that he knew the soldiers in the Philippines were in difficult positions and believed that the army should be given the benefit of every doubt. But he could not imagine any circumstances that would justify the crimes charged by men of reputation and standing. It seems to me that we people here far away from the men who are carrying our flag in another hemisphere for the first time, should take an interest in these things. Can we complacently stand inactive and allow these charges go unanswered? Ought we not allow the whole world that the American people do not stand for such practices, that they punish those who dishonor the flag."

Dr. Brundage.

Mr. Cameron then introduced Dr. William M. Brundage. The motto, "Let there be light," said Dr. Brundage, struck him as profoundly true. He did not believe in the principles of trying to conceal certain objectionable facts. There was a growing number of public officers, he continued, who believed that they were the people's conscience, and that the people had no right to question their acts. The most glorious scene in the senate was when Benton long arose and told what he believed regarding the history of the country for the last five years. Dr. Brundage held up the example of Zola, who dared to face all France and accuse the army and the government of gross wrong. With Zola he compared Senator Moar and Herbert Welsh. "I believe that a tide of such service in government has ceased to flow."

In conclusion Dr. Brundage expressed his hearty confidence in the motives of the gentlemen who were about to speak.

Mr. Cameron then read a letter from Charles E. Patterson regretting his inability to serve as chairman, and giving at length his views on the subject under discussion. He said that the great question was whether the government could be forced to allow the public records to its records and whether the secretary of war could not be induced to let the people know more about what was being done in the Philippines.

Speaker of the Evening.

Then came the speaker of the evening, Matthew K. Shiften of Philadelphia. He opened by saying that he and those with him came before the people only after trying to obtain satisfaction from the administration. According to our form of government said he, the people have a right to the truth about the Philippines. Mr. Welsh and his chief, Mr. Welsh, were serious regarding these stories [illegible] in the slums. But it was before they received unmistakable [illegible] He then described the famous "water cure," reading from the letters of officers. One officer was horrified by what he saw the [illegible] wife wrote to a Philadelphia [illegible] startling description of what she had seen. Mr. Welsh forwarded [illegible] to the president, who turned [illegible] to the secretary of war. [illegible] this evidence were such statements as those of a correspondent who [illegible] out of 100 Filipinos whom [illegible] receive the water cure, all [illegible] the secretary announced that [illegible] was guilty of no misconduct. Nevertheless, the evidence continued to [illegible] until the administration [illegible] champions were forced [illegible] their position, where they [illegible] charges absolutely unfounded [illegible] knowledge that such [illegible] prevalent but were necessary [illegible] justifiable.

Mr. Shiften then dwelt with [illegible] all upon the Father Augustine [illegible] such a instance army men [illegible] of murdering a priest by means of [illegible] water torture, and not [illegible] of this seemed indisputable. [illegible] ernment, after all investigation, declared the charge absolutely [illegible] that no such a person as Father Augustine ever existed. Private [illegible] investigated the matter further [illegible] administration finally gave out that the priest was tortured by [illegible] army officers and the superiors [illegible] not to blame.

Richter Case.

The speakers then came to the case of Private Richter of Syracuse. Richter's mother got on the stage. Only a year ago the mother received word that her boy died of appendicitis. Later she learned that the cause of his death was [illegible] matosis. She could get no information until the papers told the whole matter. Then the department commander and General Chaffee wrote that Richter was drunk and insubordinate, and that condition had been brought about by Lieutenant Shields. Shields was court martialed and acquitted. After considerable trouble Mrs. Richter and her friends received a copy of the court martial proceedings. The evidence Mr. Shiften said would convict Lieutenant Shields before any regular court of justice. All these details were pointed [illegible] confirmed him, and from time to time prompted the speaker. Nevertheless Mrs. Richter has not given up efforts to avenge her boy's death. The president says her no satisfaction can be given. She stood on the defensive, and [illegible] Davis, the judge advocate of the court martial, laughed in her face.

SHORT STORIES

From the "Amen Corner."

There was a large attendance [illegible] count in the "Amen Corner" of the Fifth Avenue hotel last night, and those were some of the interesting stories told:

"Judge Gillespie remarked George W. Wanmaker, was telling the other night of a laughable [illegible] made by Major Leach, once famous as the head of the Irish rifle team. The judge was visiting in Ireland and remarked, 'Major, is it true that much of the trouble in this little country of yours is caused by absentee landlords?' 'It is, sir,' responded the major. 'Sure our little island is full o' them.'

"Ambassador Joseph H. Choate is always getting off something resembling [illegible] said General Charles E. Furlong. 'It is the custom in England to spell out the given names of people, the use of initials only being considered bad form. Mr. Choate was asked his opinion of the [illegible] and he at once smilingly replied: 'A very good plan, and while here I follow the style of the country and drop my H.'

"My little daughter Agatha had a bright thing to say," Colonel Abraham Gruber began as he was looked to in expectation of a story. "She has a friend in the Bronx who is suffering from scarlet fever. On calling a member of the family on the telephone, she inquired the condition of the patient. 'Do we very nicely, but still peeling,' came the answer. 'Why,' explained Agatha with a merry laugh, 'if she continues to peel she'll soon be a boy, won't she?'"—(New York Mail and Express.

Had Sunk a Ch.

A young man who was born on a ranch and who, while getting his education in the east has returned westward every summer and has thus maintained a fine, strong physique recently danced with a young woman of some 200 pounds in a village not far west of Raheny, reports the Evening Post. He noticed that the dancing was uphill work and, when it was over, sank into a chair in the incipient stages of exhaustion. The young woman looked thoughtfully across the shining surface of the floor and threw a glance of investigation at the corner where the punch bowl stood.

"Doesn't it strike you that the floor is very sticky tonight?" she inquired.

The young man gallantly denied thinking so.

"It seems so to me," the young woman observed. Then she looked down at her foot, protruding from a silken flounce, and exclaimed:

"Why! I've got my rubbers on!"—(Inter Ocean.

Mallalieu and the Sailor.

Bishop Mallalieu, the distinguished Methodist, is noted for the interest he takes in men's lives and pursuits. An indefatigable student and an interrogable questioner, he has an extraordinary knowledge of many out-of-the-way and unlikely things.

One day in Boston the bishop entered into conversation with a sailor on a street corner. He asked the man, as is his wont, questions about his life—how old he was, where he got, when he drank, and whether he was married. Then, getting technical, he questioned the sailor about his work—about sails and ropes and winds. Finally he said:

"Can you box the compass?"

"Yes, sir," returned the sailor, and he boxed it.

"Now reverse it," said the bishop.

Nothing, the sailor reversed it.

"Good, good," said the bishop. But the sailor detained him and began to ask questions in his turn. First they were personal questions regarding the bishop's age, salary and duties; then they became technical questions regarding the number of pages in the bible, the shortest verse, the longest verse, and all those other things that a sailor would seem necessary to a bishop's education. Dr. Mallalieu, smiling, replied to every question fully.

"Now," said the seaman at the end, "repeat the Lord's prayer."

This the Bishop did.

"Now reverse it!"

"I'm afraid I can't."

"I reversed the compass," muttered the sailor in a regretful voice.—(Boston Tit-Bits.

A TOO EASY-GOING THEOLOGY.

When a man dies a prodigal, a hardened sinner, I can see but one of two things for him—he must be put where he will feel his punishment, inflicted by his Father in heaven, or else be thrown away as so much waste and worthless material—retribution or annihilation. A man that has been cheating, lying and lecherting all the week goes to church and is told that hell is a humbug for murderers, and that ministers who preach it are bigots. He will go home to his dinner with satisfaction and cheerfully pay his pew tax and church widows' homes and cheat and lecher another week. That God loves and will not punish all he sees in Wall Street and Vanity Fair, in fashionable society, in stage, in nurseries, in seminaries, in slave pens, in saloons, in kitchens and in chambers, I will not believe. THE PASSING OF THE ROD.

Let every school teacher remember that he or she who lays a hand on a boy save in the way of kindness will be darkened ever to judgment. Times have changed, and we are changing with them. The boy who escaped with a "whaling" 25 years ago thanked his lucky stars; now a shaving is little less abhorrent to the cultivated sense than melted lead and burning oil, and the boy returning from [illegible] shows gaping wounds and frightful scars caused by the teacher who "shook me." In the terrible days of old that boy could not have exhibited his wounds at home, knowing full well that he would be likely to acquire other honorable scars for good measure; but we have progressed beyond all that and "Please Johnny, be good" is the recipe for developing heroes and a higher order of Anglo-Saxon manhood. Who would not be a boy again under these delightful conditions? Who would not feel that there is no place like school?—(Roswell Field, in Chicago Post.

TOURIST SEASON OPENS TWO WEEKS EARLIER THAN LAST YEAR

The summer tourist season in Colorado Springs and throughout Colorado is increased 15 days by independent action taken by the western lines members of the Western Passenger association. Instead of June 10, round trip tickets on the basis of one fare plus 50 cents to Colorado common points will be on sale June 1, the rate, which will be continuous from that date until September 30, with a final return limit of October 31, applying from all points in Western Passenger association territory.

An arbitrary rate has been increased on long limit tourist tickets in Transcontinental Passenger association territory, to coast points by way of San Francisco and Portland.

The summer tourist season will open in Colorado 15 days earlier this year than last, and in the history of the Transcontinental association, notice was received yesterday that all the large western lines have given notice to the Western Passenger association that they will put on sale low rate round trip tourist tickets to the Colorado common points, Colorado Springs, Denver and Pueblo, June 1 instead of June 6, as heretofore agreed. The rate to apply every day throughout the tourist season, June 1 to September 30, from Chicago, St. Louis and all points in Western Passenger association territory to Colorado is one fare plus 50 cents for the round trip. This makes the fare from Chicago $60, from St. Louis, $45, and other points in proportion. The rate applies from all eastern gateways of the Western Passenger association, which are roughly a line drawn north of Colorado through St. Louis and including Peoria, Cairo, Ill., and points to the south. All other points west of this line share, of course, in the rate. The return limit is October 31.

Colorado railroad men welcome the announcement, as it means not only a longer season but less congestion and heavier travel as the rate will be in effect every day from June 1 to September 30. It is much better than the basis of last year, when on a few special dates a $25 round trip rate applied from Chicago. On other dates throughout the season which began June 15, a rate of one fare plus $2 applied. This might be called the regular rate. The fare from Chicago on this basis was $41.50. As the $25 rate was only in effect during a few days each month many tourists would wait for these selling dates in order to save the $4.50 and usually the western lines had hard work to handle the immense crowds.

All rates have now been made, the eastbound rates from Colorado reaching as far as Memphis. These have been published.

Notice has also been received of an increase in the arbitrary rate applying on long limit tourist tickets to the Pacific coast. These tickets have had a time limit of nine months and on these applying by way of Portland and San Francisco the arbitrary increase over the low selling rate has been $13.50. The Transcontinental Passenger association which has just finished its meeting in Portland has ruled that on June 1 an arbitrary of $15 must be added on all long-limit tourist tickets applying by Portland and San Francisco. The straight rate on these tickets being $80 from Colorado Springs the arbitrary increase makes them $95.

The giving of notice to the Western Passenger association that the western lines will not be held by the agreement naming June 10 as the opening date for the sale of the low rate tourist pasteboards does not mean that the lines have arbitrarily broken an agreement or that trouble will result. It was incorporated in the regulations governing the association upon its reorganization recently that any line a member of the association, dissatisfied with any action may act independently upon giving notice of such contemplated action to the chairman in time to protect the other members. In this case all the tourist roads are acting in concert.

The letting down of the bars means exactly 15 days more of tourist travel for Colorado Springs and Colorado points generally. It has been urged that an earlier season will bring many to the mountains who otherwise would go to the seashore or desirous of escaping from the heated period of the early summer in many parts of the east would make plans to visit resorts nearer home.

CLARK BROS. AND KINNEY CLAIMS ARE SETTLED

The board of arbitrators appointed by the county commissioners and Gillis Bros. and Patrick Kinney, contractors for the construction of the foundation of the new county court house, reached a conclusion yesterday afternoon. The hours awarded the sum of $3,814.99 to the contractors and by it is said that they should pay a sum towards the compensation of the arbitrators.

The contractors made a claim for $10,000 alleged to be due them for the performance of extra work connected with the building of the foundation. This claim was based on extra stone cutting, the building of extra walls and the construction of heavier walls. The award was made for the finishing of extra granite in the building of the outside walls. The plans stipulated that there should be eight inches of granite outside of a brick lining 18 inches in width. The contractors however built the full thickness of the wall of granite. The terms of the award as set by the arbitrators is as follows:

To the Honorable Court of county commissioners of El Paso county, and Messrs. Gillis Bros and Kinney, contractors, Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned board of arbitrators duly appointed by yourselves to decide upon the amount of money due said contractors from the said county of El Paso, find that there is a balance of $3,814.99 due said Gillis Bros. and Kinney. This amount includes all contracts and extras for material and labor furnished and performed on the new El Paso county court house building.

We also find that the said contractors shall allow the sum of $80 towards the payment of the arbitrators, to be deducted out of the amount, and that El Paso county shall pay the balance due said arbitrators.

The Excess Water System Will Be Delayed

The building of the proposed water extensions for the improvement of the city's water system will be delayed until a more favorable time for the sale of the bonds. The city had planned to construct this extension system by the sale of the $150,000 water extension bonds, by for which were upheld by the city council at its meeting Monday night.

At last night's special meeting of the council the finance committee reported against the recommendation of the bids submitted at the former meeting, with the result that action on further action be taken at this time. It was thought that a decision of the issue would be made but the action of the council in rejecting the recommendation of the committee now it almost certain that nothing will be done for the next three or four months. Mr. First St. John of the council, stated after the meeting that it [illegible] wait until the [illegible] will be a more favorable time to put the bonds on the market. It comes better and money is freer. It is the opinion of the council members that a readvertisement at this time would result the same as our former advertisement did and we would have the expense for nothing.

"Of course it means the stoppage of all work on the water extension system, but the citizens will have to put up with the limited water supply until we are able to get the money with which to increase it. We will keep a close watch on the market and advertise again at the most favorable time. We hope to get a good market within six months at least."

MEETING HELD BUT TAKE NO ACTION

A meeting of the colored citizens of the city was held last night at St. John's Baptist church for the purpose of considering ways and means for the erection of a building for the Young Men's Christian union, modeled after the Y. M. C. A. building. Owing to the failure of the committee having the matter in charge to report, the matter was postponed subject to the call of the committee. Rev. W. B. Gladden, who is at the head of the movement, has been absent from the city for several days and returned yesterday too late to make any definite report of the progress of the committee.

APPOINTED BY COUNCIL AT NIGHT

Several appointments were made at the special meeting of the city council last night. A. O. Taylor was by the vote of the council, made storekeeper for the coming term, and Thomas Armstrong, A. P. Everett, A. T. Pooley, William Peck, Samuel Marshall, Edward McNabb, C. E. Knapp and W. H. Tuttle were made special policemen without salary, by the appointment of Mayor Ira Marris. The first four named are to be employed in the north end of the city and the last four in the central part.

Last night's council meeting was called for the purpose of hearing the report of the finance committee relative to the bid submitted by the representatives of the bonding companies for the issue of $100,000 worth of water extension bonds. The business which developed at the meeting however overshadowed the special business of the evening and it was nearly 11 o'clock before President St. John let fall the gavel declaring adjournment.

The report of the finance committee recommended the refusal of the bids submitted. This carried with it the delaying of the work on the proposed water extension system.

The other business transacted was the consideration of the proposed franchise to the Colorado Automatic Telephone company. The representatives of both the new company and the old were at the meeting and laid the arguments for their respective sides before the members. With the close of these arguments the council decided to refer the franchise to the ordinance committee with instructions to make an investigation into the merits and demerits and report its findings to the members of the council meeting as a committee of the whole.

The bond of City Treasurer W. H. Hoagland was set at $150,000, being an increase of $50,000 over the bonds given by former incumbents of the office.

The [illegible] committee was authorized to arrange for the advertisement for 6,000 feet of six inch cast iron pipe and 4,000 feet of four inch pipe.

The [illegible] of the council were hanged so as to meet [illegible] by calling the body in order at 7:30 [illegible] year around.

Upon motion of Alderman Pettit the City Attorney was instructed to draft an ordinance making the Fire Chief duty off [illegible] electrician with power to investigate the wiring of all [illegible] buildings in the city and condemn them if he deems necessary.

The public improvements committee was authorized to advertise for bids for the furnishing of a 200,000 gallon [illegible] and the building of a barn for the water and sewer departments.

The street committee was authorized to advertise for bids for the furnishing of new [illegible] wagons and harness.

The [illegible] Chief of Police A. King and City Clerk [illegible] O. H. Stone were filed and approved.

Building Inspector's Report Delayed Pending Reports

The publication of the names of those whose building permits are not shown on the books of ex-Building Inspector D. C. Cleary, has resulted in several contractors reporting at the office with their canceled checks and receipts, as evidence of their payment for the building permit and water used in the building construction. Chairman Palmer of the finance committee, under whose supervision the investigation is now being made, states yesterday that he believed the canvass would show at least two-thirds of the amount to have been paid into the office of the building inspector.

In reference to legislation in the matter, Mr. Palmer stated yesterday: "We are now involved in tracing down the records and trying to find out the amount of the shortage, when we have done that, we will then be in a position to take the next step. I think it very probable that legal action will be instituted at once on the basis of the result reached in the canvass."

Telephone Franchise Back at Meeting of the Council

The application for a franchise by the Citizens Automatic Telephone company is again before the city council, and according to the action taken at the meeting last night will be finally acted upon at the next regular meeting, May 18. The representatives of both the Citizens company and the Colorado Telephone company were present at the reading of the proposed franchise, and upon motion of members of the council, presented their arguments for and against the competing company. The Colorado Telephone company was represented by Karl Schuyler, its attorney, and the Citizens company by D. Y. Donaldson, F. F. Costello, T. G. Peck and its attorney, W. J. Kilham.

Mr. Donaldson of the Citizens company spoke for about 30 minutes in presenting his side of the question, and was followed by Mr. Schuyler for the present company. After their statements had been completed, President St. John of the council announced that the members had had a caucus during the afternoon of yesterday, at which the question of dealing with the franchise had been considered. He stated that it had been agreed to refer the matter to the ordinance committee for consideration, with instructions to report back to the council at its next meeting, May 18. When it is reported back the council will first consider it in committee of the whole.

Chairman John Hill of the ordinance committee, stated after adjournment, that the time of meeting by his committee had not been determined, but he thought that the meeting would be an exciting one. "We intend to build a thorough investigation of the matter before we report," he said, further. "We will send invitations to the respective sides to be represented at the meeting of the committee, and it is our intention to have the matter gone into thoroughly before we make any report. We also intend to send personal letters to the business men in the city, and it is the intention of some of the members of the council, I am informed, to send letters to all the voters in their wards, asking their opinion on the question. The ordinance committee is composed of John Hill, chairman; R. J. Verner and A. M. Holden.

In presenting the arguments for the new company, Mr. Donaldson filed with the clerk of the council a list containing the names of 438 merchants who, he stated, have signed five-year contracts with his company. He also presented a petition signed by 280 citizens directed to the council and asking that the franchise be granted the new company. During the progress of the discussion over the matter a communication was received from the Merchants association setting forth a resolution adopted by that organization also urging that the franchise be granted. The resolution follows:

"To the honorable mayor and city council of the city of Colorado Springs, Colorado:

"At the regular meeting of the Merchants association, now in session, the following motion was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the Merchants association of Colorado Springs ask the city council to grant the franchise asked for by the Citizens Automatic Telephone company provided, however, that the franchise shall not be sold to any other party or corporation.

"By order of the Merchants association.

(Signed) E. W. Wirsap, Secretary."

The franchise as it now reads contains a provision granting to the city the use of 18 telephones free, should the rights it carries be granted. And under the suggestion of the council Mr. Donaldson promised that it would also consider the charges to be made by the new company for the use of telephones. These charges are given as $45 for business telephones and $30 for residence telephones.

Mr. Schuyler, for the Colorado Telephone company, did not make any argument against the granting of the franchise, but asked that the matter be referred to a committee for investigation before action was finally taken. Both sides declared themselves as well pleased with the decision and promised to go before the committee with their arguments and data.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 MAIN STREET, BUFFALO, N. Y.

The Salesman's Chance

Will Be Made Next Week

All important meeting between the chamber of commerce and the committee of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavorers, in charge of arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the convention of Denver early in July, will be held this afternoon at the chamber. A conservative estimate places the number of visitors to Colorado from this section at 20,000, this number 14,000 are expected to visit Colorado Springs.

To handle the crowd and to obviate any possibility of unpleasant features such as occurred last week at St. Louis at the dedicatory ceremonies of the World's fair, where the authorities admittedly have made no arrangements to handle the comparatively small number of persons that came to the city, plans will be determined upon today to take care of each visitor.

Secretary Henry Russell Wirsap of the chamber of commerce, met yesterday with several of the division secretaries of the society, laying before them the necessity of system in the arrangements so that the city will be able to cope with the great number who have signified their intention of having the pleasure of some of their guests, depending upon private agency. Ways and means to care for each guest of the city will be agreed upon at the meeting to be held at 9 o'clock this afternoon.

It may be that a book containing the names of public buildings will have to be compiled, in which will have to be placed the names of those tendering lodging houses. It is the intention of Secretary Wirsap and the chamber officers to make a census of all lodging houses and other accommodations that may be offered by citizens. One of the suggestions to be considered is the advisability of having the public buildings, including the high school, the auditorium, the new Antlers hotel and the Acacia hotel, thrown open to the visitors, to be charged to the city.

Mr. Wirsap stated yesterday:

"It is not only a question of how we can entertain the visitors while they are in the city, but how we can make their stay here a pleasant one, so that they will go away with the impression that Colorado Springs is a desirable place to live in. Should one thousand people remain here for a great length of time and if only $100 be spent in each Colorado Springs store during the time of their visit, a considerable sum of money will be added to the city's wealth. The fact that they are getting the benefit of the exceptionally fine climate will make a noticeable showing on the receipts and profits of the hotels. It is necessary for some well and strongly organized plan to be adopted at once, in order that this program may be carried out successfully. I have my own ideas as to how this can be done, but I do not wish to express them until I have had an opportunity of having the matter systematized before the big meeting is held in Colorado Springs."

The executive committee of the society have been working nights and Sundays in Colorado Springs for the past month, and will continue with this work for the next two weeks. Denver is also working hard to secure the convention, and it is the intention of the committee to have the visitors spend a day in the Queen City of the Plains, if it is possible to arrange for the trip.

Mining and Mineral Exhibit Will Be Sent East

Early plans for the Antlers yesterday brought out the information that there will be a mineral exhibit sent from Colorado Springs to the Atlanta exposition. The exhibit will be made by the Colorado Springs Mining exchange, and will be in charge of Secretary Henry Russell Wirsap. The plan is to secure a number of specimens of ore from the various mines in the district, and to display them in a manner that will show to the best advantage the mineral wealth of the district. The exhibit will be made up of specimens of gold, silver, lead, copper and iron ores, and will be shipped to Atlanta in time for the opening of the exposition.

Pueblo Bank May Not Close

Will Be Reorganized

From present indications it seems hardly possible that an arbitration board can be secured in the matter of the claim of Lewis W. Popejoy against the board of county commissioners. So far Popejoy has not been able to suggest an arbitrator acceptable to the county commissioners, and there is now only one arbitrator named, F. E. Baldbrooke of Denver, representing the county commissioners.

Popejoy has so far suggested three arbitrators to act on the board but the commissioners have refused to allow the matter to go to arbitration if Popejoy should insist on his selection. Those suggested by Popejoy have been J. W. Coffey, William H. Goshen and W. A. Diebolt. In the stipulation agreeing upon the appointment of the arbitration board, it was provided that all the members of the arbitration board should be able to read the plans of Architect J. A. Smith, upon the basis of which the bids of all contractors, including Popejoy, were founded. Mr. Coffey stated at the first meeting that he was unable to read the plans, and for that reason he was not acceptable to the commissioners. The same qualification was urged against Goshen and Diebold and Popejoy has yet to bring to bear acceptable arbitrator. F. E. Baldbrooke, the arbitrator for the county commissioners, returned to Denver yesterday where he will consult with the members of the board who have been upon.

The commissioners gave it as their opinion yesterday that the matter will never be submitted to arbitration or look for the matter to be settled by the courts, said Commissioner Rouse. It is certain that before agree to a third arbitrator who is not to read the architect's plans and specifications, believe no acceptable board can be found.

Popejoy's claim amounts to $ [illegible] and based on work included in the [illegible] ing of the new court house [illegible] ing, alleged by him to be extra [illegible] included in the contract.

Grand Jury Returns Two Indictments

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served to the guests, Mr. Bayne and Mrs. Thomas left on a wedding trip. Both are well-known young people and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

The publication of the names of those whose building permits are not on the books of ex-Building Inspector S. G. Chairman Dunbar of the finance committee, under whose supervision the investigation is now being made, said yesterday that he believed the canvass would show at least two-thirds of the amounts to have been paid into the office of the building secretary.

An important meeting between the chamber of commerce directors and the committee of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavorers, in charge of arrangements for the reception and entertainment of visiting Endeavorers, as a result of the convention in Denver early in July, will be held this afternoon at the chamber. A conservative estimate places the number of visitors to Colorado from this source at 5,000 and this number 4,000 are expected to visit Colorado Springs.

To handle this crowd and to obviate any possibility of judgement failures such as occurred last week at St. Louis at the dedicatory ceremonies of the World's fair where the authorities admittedly had made no arrangements to handle the comparatively small number of persons who came to the city plans will be slated to be gone over today to take care of each visitor.

Secretary Henry Russell Wray of the chamber of commerce has written to several of the division secretaries of the society in this section the necessity of system in the arrangements so that the city will be able to cope with the great number who have stated it their intention of having the return portions of their tickets reported by the local [illegible] agency. Ways and means to care for such guests of the city will be agreed upon at the meeting to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

It may be the school houses, the Temple theater and other available public buildings will have to be utilized for an economical one and city may have to be used in these temporary lodging houses. It is the hope of Secretary Wray and the chamber efforts to take no chances in every way. One of the questions to be discussed is the movement to have theaters, bowling houses and other places of public entertainment agree upon a certain [illegible] rate to be charged to visitors.

Mr. Wray stated yesterday: "It is not only a question of the endeavors themselves make to entertain the visiting people, but we should like pride to have our guests have a pleasant and profitable time. Fourteen thousand people in a short period is a great number for Colorado Springs to entertain, and if only one-tenth of them [illegible] within a short period of time would it mean? The city's attractions to the tourist are many and [illegible] but this program we can accomplish only by the co-operation of the people. I have received assurances upon the part of the hotel men that they are willing to do their part, and I am confident that the [illegible] will be ready to meet the emergency."

[illegible] Are Tied And Saw Away In Ball of Nine

Score Was 5 to 4 in Favor of Denver but Easton and Delehanty Made Mistakes and Frank and Conniston Made Hits and [illegible]

After he Newspaper: "On behalf of the [illegible] I desire you to take it, my dear Easton.

Easton: "Really, my dear Harry, we have no particular use for this game and you might as well have it."

Lane, (Mr. Everitt): "Play ball."

Denver couldn't think of taking a game away from the locals and after they had the contest won, in the eighth Easton and Delehanty failed to secure the victory to the Mascot Men. In that inning after one man had out, the former Millionaire twirler, with his cousin Fry, pulled a make an error. Delehanty not to be outdone by any of his [illegible] ade another one and it [illegible] those two misplays, aided with lucky hits by Francke and Easton and Everitt, the hit and the first game of the series into the outfield of the Park with the final score, by a score of 6 to 5.

The game itself was the most exciting seen so far this season. It was a [illegible] battle from start to finish with the honors about even.

Denver Took Lead.

Denver took the lead in the first a fluke although Mohler in score. After Delehanty had died at first, Nill and Everitt [illegible], Newmeyer tried to draw a prize and hit Mohler in the back. Mohler went to first and led off a good way for the bag. He started for No. 2 and in [illegible] Everitt's yell. Newmeyer started to throw the ball but threw it to [illegible] instead of to Nill. Mohler was then safe but Everitt threw the ball to second. Francke and Nill went after it and in the excitement Mohler took another each, coming home on a field play.

The score stood 1 to 0 until the fifth. After Doran had sent a high one to Mohler, Newmeyer singled. Then Egan went with the willow, resulting in a [illegible] ger, brought in Newmeyer and a hit by Lamley allowed "Tom" to score the rubber, making it one to the good. Again in the sixth the locals doubled. First by Nill. Or Nville sent Fleming sent the ball two yards at the pitcher and [illegible] as the Civilites had grouped together again. This run on successive doubles by Frisk and Durden.

In the eighth the worst [illegible] inning was what brought it to the eyes of the fans and caused a pall of gloom to settle over the Parkites. It could not be [illegible] with the worst work in the ninth.

Delehanty, the first man up, singled, as did Mohler, [illegible] a grounder to Frisk. Jones [illegible] by the way he [illegible] on the ball [illegible] got to [illegible] Everitt's throw. Newmeyer got to [illegible] and Everitt was [illegible] Nill's down toward the [illegible] White [illegible] was [illegible] at second. A bunch of fans trampled [illegible] to Evans, [illegible] the stations. At this critical [illegible] Nill [illegible] liner of Frisk's and during the promenade two were scored by the Cubs. Mohler and [illegible] scoring. Nill's chance was a difficult one as the ball was [illegible] rather small, but it was the conservative of opinion that he should have had it as he has taken harder ones with ease. Radcliffe [illegible] also Dundon to stop, but after that there was "[illegible] nothing doing."

It was one, two and three and a big "goose egg" for the Springs in their half of the eighth, while Denver did no better in the ninth. In the last half of the ninth, however, after Easton, who batted for Newmeyer, had gone to the bench, flying to Dundon, Fleming stepped to the bat. His hit was an easy out, but Easton, who ran to [illegible] the put-out at first, missed the ball thrown by Delehanty and Fleming took another one "without your leave." Francke was [illegible] for a single and there was no [illegible]. With this rank error of Easton's staring him in the face Delehanty did almost the same thing, missing a ball thrown by Dundon to catch Lumley at first. A hit by Congalton did the rest, as Francke had taken third on the error and was ready to come home. After three [illegible]. Official score:

[illegible] Game for Sport

For Rooters, Best All Round Thursday. The Who Like to Holler, Those Who Have Money Up, and Deaf Fraser, Take the Right Bleachers.

The rooting that came from the right bleachers yesterday was the best exhibition of the kind at a local ball game. A regular "anvil chorus" was in progress when [illegible] Colorado Springs was at the bat. The suggestion [illegible] by the Gazette had a good effect. Bells, megaphones, horns and other instruments of noise were in evidence and [illegible] to good advantage and a number of the [illegible] fans were forced to retire to the [illegible] to get the ringing out of their ears. But if one will [illegible] and think, it was the rooting that [illegible] the game.

Early in the afternoon John Garrett, Burt James, and a number of other enthusiasts started to raise a purse and a large sum was soon collected. Two hundred tin horns of various sizes and shapes were then purchased and distributed among the fans at the grounds. Before the game started a wagon bearing the horns and cow bells [illegible] to illuminate the use thereof [illegible] ded the streets, and it is needless to say that there were many times over 200 pairs of lungs to play the music when the game began. Messrs. Garrett and Jones are now starting a fund to purchase 200 more horns for Sunday's game. The horns will be confiscated at the gate and used during the season.

Everyone is urged to join the rooting brigade. A horn, a cow bell, a megaphone or anything that will make a noise and a good pair of lungs is all that is required to make one eligible for membership.

AROUND THE BASES

Well! Well! Well!

We can't lose, can we?

Denver had the game cinched yesterday but couldn't keep it.

Thanks are due to the ball chorus.

For it was the rooting that got Easton and Delehanty [illegible] in the air.

That was a great, one-hand catch of Nill's one fly made by Jones yesterday. But Jones says he didn't expect to make it.

Steve Fleming was right there with the merchandise yesterday. Two out of the nine hits and such field work.

Fleming has been dubbed "Slow Joe" by the Denver papers on account of his fielding. No matter where the ball is knocked, "Tom" has crept up on it and is waiting for it.

Everitt and Egan were the only ones who did not get a hit yesterday.

Congalton didn't get his hit until the last time up but as it brought in the winning run, that was the best place for it.

They will have to get a deuce of a pitcher for Francke if he plans not quit striking at those fast balls.

Old Reliable Jerry Lumley was good for a single yesterday when his mates [illegible]. Lumley brought in Francke in the fifth and put the locals ahead the first time.

It began to rain in the first inning yesterday, but it was [illegible] over more than a shower to dampen the ardor of the 1,500 fans out to witness the first game.

Lumley made a great running catch of Latimer's long fly to right yesterday which to the fans who saw looked impossible.

Take two hands Easton, when you go to catch a ball and Delehanty don't mind those [illegible] in the bleachers.

Another hunt for bear meat this afternoon at 3:45. The Moheyun's [illegible] getting their firearms ready.

Kyler Lemike or Whitridge is on the slate to pitch for Denver today with Nehlet as lackey. "Poor old Lemike" is most like you be the victim.

For the locals Captain Bill Everitt is doing batting whether it shall be Villeman, Jones or Curtis. It is Villeman, return but [illegible] Everitt's combination: Doran behind the bat.

Umpire McCarty who had his debut in this city yesterday, made a questionable decision at third. Dundon was playing off third after the [illegible] on the Civilites due to Nill's error. The ball was thrown to Granville who found Dundon when the latter's foot was within a foot of the [illegible]. McCarty ruled it safe, however.

Bill Everitt did a trick one of those old time kicks of his, but to no avail. It looked as if Bill was to be retired for a while, but he was let off with a fine.

Everitt made a difficult catch of a foul off the batting of one right bleachers yesterday, which gained him the wind hand.

Today a ladies' day. Members of the fair sex accompanied by an escort will be admitted to the grounds free. A charge of 25 cents will be made for the grandstand.

Sporting Notes

Young Corbett, the champion feather-weight boxer of the world, will pay Colorado Springs a visit this evening, doing his vaudeville stunt at the Opera house. Young Corbett has surrounded himself with a good company and is said to be putting on a good show. The champion is too well-known for anything more to be said than local sports will turn out in a body to see him this evening.

Prof. W. A. Stillwell, physical director at the Y. M. C. A., is endeavoring to organize another baseball team among the members of the association. A practice meet has been called for Saturday afternoon at Washburn field, when players will be selected.

Malley is training hard for the bout and is in fine shape. The list of those who will attend the bout if a special rate can be secured has now reached 75 and the full 100 names ought to be raised within the next few days.

Grant Fauley, [illegible] agent for the Cog road, has been appointed road agent for the Colorado Springs baseball team, H. W. Dunkle having resigned. Mr. Fauley will take up his new duties May 15, at which time he severs his connection with the Cog road.

And now Frank Cavanaugh of Worcester, Mass., who was secured after so much trouble and expense to coach the Colorado college football team for the season of 1905 wants to be released from his contract. The Holy Cross college is after Cavanaugh and whether the inducements offered are better than those of the college, or not, Cavanaugh has asked the College Athletic association that he be freed from his contract.

THE CANAL TUNNEL.

Work Is Rapidly Being Made and Heavy Rate Continues Tunnel Will Be Completed Before Expiration of Contract Time. New Plant for Cripple Creek Enterprise.

Special to the Gazette.

Victor, May 7.—Splendid progress is being made in the driving of the El Paso drainage tunnel, and if the present record be kept up, the large work will be completed some time before the contract time expires. During April the work was distributed about equally, except in the east heading from the Elkton shaft. From the portal end 1,000 feet of driving was accomplished. From the Peerless shaft, driving two ways, 800 feet was accomplished. In the west heading from the El Paso shaft a total of 146 feet was performed, making in all 2,946 feet.

Driving is now in progress from five different headings. One from the portal, two from the deep shaft, and two from the El Paso shaft. Three shifts are employed, and if only an average of five feet a day is accomplished, the work will be fully completed on the day specified in the contract, but the company intends to finish the work before that time, and earn the bonus it will be entitled to.

There is one gratifying feature about the water situation, and that is the water level of the camp is slowly receding. For instance, during last month the water in the Elkton shaft receded 10 inches.

Last evening Charles Cannon of Goldfield and J. S. Johnson of Anaconda, were granted a contract to drive 1,100 feet in the tunnel. The new contractors are making preparations to commence work about the end of this week. They will work two or three shifts with the intention of finishing their part of the contract about the first of August of this year. The completion of the whole thing is called for the 25th of August.

Cripple Creek Enterprise.

The old plant of machinery on the Cripple Creek Enterprise company's ground located at the corner of Fourth and Myers avenue, in this city, has all been torn down and sold to a machinery man.

Manager Ianiry said to your representative today that he had ordered a new plant, consisting of a large compressor, engine and boilers and would install the machinery immediately, but it would be in the new shaft house for which contracts are now being let. Mr. Hanley recently secured the back end of the lots owned by Tutt & Penrose, Fourth and Bennett, and it is on this ground that he will build a large shaft house. Also erecting a new 80-foot gallows frame.

One clause in the building contract is that the structure shall be finished in 30 days after starting, so the mine will probably be closed down for this length of time.

When the new plant is in position, four men will be employed, and development work will then be pushed with all possible speed, for what is known as the National vein. He also expects to work one man on the recent rich find that was made at the 200-foot level, when he will follow this vein until it is found to be in place, and from which he will make shipments right along.

Big Banta.

The work of unwatering the shaft in the Big Banta property on Battle mountain, has been finished the bottom of which is about 80 feet in depth, and the lessees immediately began sinking, where they expect to keep it up for some 25 feet, when they will drift from this point on the vein that was followed for some distance while sinking the shaft. If pay rock is not encountered in this vein, they will then drive west for the vein that was opened up at surface.

EXPRESSION OF LEASE MEN AND PROPERTIES

Negotiations are in progress looking toward the starting up of the Moon-Anchor properties on Gold hill under the leasing system. Several applications for leases have been received at the offices of the company and, although no leases have yet been granted, there is a strong probability that the directors of the company will take action before the end of the week. It is understood that one or two leases have been practically agreed upon, and all that now remains to make them operative is for the parties to the lease to sign up the necessary papers.

The property is equipped with a good plant of machinery which has been idle for several months, and there is a shaft down about 400 feet with a large amount of lateral work. The leases will be granted on different levels and it is possible that the shaft will be put to a greater depth than at present. The solution of the water trouble by the drainage tunnel now being run will permit of development work to a greater depth without fear of being hampered by an excessive flow of water.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Beacon hill stocks were again the prominent feature on the mining stock market yesterday morning. Magnet Rock sold at 1¾ and Mary Nevin at 1¾, with sales of 5,000 shares. Merrimac advanced from 1¼ to 1½, although only 1,000 shares changed hands. Old Gold was a fair trader at 1¾, the top price in the history of the stock. Hayden Gold was traded in at 66 per 1,000 shares.

STATE LAND BOARD AFTER FEE TO CLAIM

Effort Will Be Made to Force Hard and Company to Relinquish Title—Rumor of Shortage in the Land Office Said to Be Absolutely Groundless.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, May 7.—Pueblo land held by the Hard Land company of that city, will be sued, the state land board having decided to force a settlement of the matter.

L. R. Hitch, the board appraiser, will have charge of prosecuting the case. Many years ago Hard purchased the land of the state, and a deed was executed, being the result of a filing in of the low lands along the Arkansas river, following the construction by the state several years ago of the levee along the river near the city of Pueblo.

Settlers settled on the land, and from the Hard company has been collecting ground rent from 25 to 250 a year. The total sum collected during the time the Hard title had the land under control will mount well into the thousands, and may possibly reach a million. Should Hard & company decide to fight, the land board says, suit will be instituted, but if they relinquish all claim to the disputed tract, no such penalty will be required. Persons or corporations owning tracts of five acres of high land within the limits claimed by the Hard company have a title to all adjoining land that was subsequently created, this land having been reclaimed by filling, and will be the land board.

SUNDAY NURSERY MEETS SERVE AGAIN

The annual meeting of the Colorado Springs Day Nursery Association was held yesterday afternoon in the nursery building, 326 South Tejon street. Mrs. Lee Bance, the president, occupied the chair and there was a goodly number of the friends interested in attendance.

Miss Sarah J. Warren, secretary, pro tem., made the following report:

This year, as in past, the work has been most satisfactory and beneficial to the children who have been under the care of the association. During the entire year the building has been filled. There has been no very severe illness, though the services of a trained nurse has been needed at two different times.

The board of managers have held regular monthly meetings. In August, Miss Anderson, the secretary, was granted a year's leave of absence and Mrs. Washburn was appointed in her place.

A change of matrons was made in January.

Annual Benefit.

This year the annual lunch was given up, but a ball, most successful financially and socially was held January 1 at the Antlers, for the benefit of the Day nursery.

Soon after the opening of the free kindergarten at the Lowell school, it was thought best to send the children there instead of continuing the kindergarten at the nursery.

The Day nursery has met in the past year a great loss in the death of Dr. Lawrence. As one member said, no words can tell all that he has done for us. Such devotion as his is very rare.

Our thanks are due to the physicians who have so kindly given their services and thus shown their deep interest in the institution. Also to the Horticultural society for half the proceeds of sale of flowers and to Mrs. De Witt, who entertained the nursery children so delightfully at Christmas time. Special mention should be made of the kindness of Mr. McAffee in providing car tickets for the little ones who, at least once a week, were taken to the park, much to their delight.

To all the kind friends who have remembered the children during the past year we extend our most hearty thanks.

The report of the treasurer, Miss Josie A ken, showed the receipts during the year to have been $1,766.54. There was on hand at the beginning of the year 717.22, which added to the receipts made $2,483.76. The expenditures during the year amounted to $2,485.44, leaving a cash balance at this time of $43.50.

The endowment fund, together with interest amounts to $2,67[illegible]. The association is free from debt, but never before has the balance in the treasury been so low. Although the parents of the children are required to meet the small charge for caring for them, it being the policy of organization—thus removing all hint of charity—yet, at times circumstances arise whereby temporarily children are dependent charges. Such is the case now with some five or six. Twenty-five children can be accommodated at the nursery and the family now numbers 23. Miss Jacobs the matron is giving much satisfaction.

Mrs. Harriet Lawrence, who has been president ever since the nursery was founded, was re-elected for the sixth term of office [illegible] by meeting yesterday [illegible] finally declined re-election, but her co-workers would not hear to it. They say a unit in declaring that to her is due, in largest [illegible] measure, the prosperity and success of the work.

The Officers.

The other general officers, too, have served most faithfully and re-election was accorded them, as follows: Vice president, Miss Warren; secretary, Miss Anderson; treasurer, Miss Aiken.

Board of directors, 1903-1905, Mrs. H. C. Lowe, Mrs. A. G. Sharp, Miss Maynard, Mrs. T. F. De Witt, Mrs. Percy Hagerman and Mrs. A. Lockhart.

1902-1904—Mrs. J. M. Gemis, Mrs. Phillip Washburn, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Seth Baker, Miss Burns and Miss Aiken.

The Food Drink.

MALT-SUTRINE. A pure malt extract for the weak and convalescent.

At all druggists.

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT FROM THE PRESIDENT

President Roosevelt has sent a message to Colorado Springs. It is a graceful little note of acknowledgement for a souvenir given him before his departure for the south Monday afternoon. Martin Slaughter and A. A. Walling presented 24 copies of the handsomely illustrated book, "In the Shadow of Pike's Peak," to the president and members of his party. The president's copy was bound in leather and his name and an appropriate cover design were burnt in. As Mr. Slaughter expressed it, he thought the books containing illustrations of all points of interest would be a pleasant reminder of the visit.

This was also the conviction of the president if the following note, which was received yesterday, is any indication. It is written on paper bearing the monogram of the White house, and reads as follows:

"Santa Fe, New Mexico, May 6, 1903.

"Gentlemen:—Your recent favors have been received, and I beg to thank you in behalf of the president and the members of his party for your courtesy. Very truly yours,

"William Loeb, Jr.,
"Secretary to the President.

"Messrs. A. A. Walling and
"Martin Slaughter,
"Colorado Springs, Colo."

Another letter received was as follows:

"En Route, May 5, 1903.

"Gentlemen:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of the handsome souvenir of Pike's Peak which you were kind enough to send me, and to thank you most cordially for your thoughtful courtesy. Assuring you that your kindness is heartily appreciated, believe me, very truly yours,

"J. L. McGrew."

Mr. McGrew is one of the friends of the president.

Children's Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. First street, Hutchinson, Kas., writes: "I have given Ballard's Horehound Syrup to my children for coughs and colds for the past four years, and find it the best medicine I ever used." Unlike many cough syrups, it contains no opium, but will soothe and heal any disease of the throat or lungs quicker than any other remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Hefley-Arculaire Drug Co.

The passage of a statute by the last session of the state legislature raised the salaries of city treasurers of cities of the first class from $1,500 to $3,000, and an ordinance had been prepared by City Attorney Shelton providing for a change in the city ordinance in conformity thereto. The ordinance was before the council last night but was deferred on account of a doubt as to the date of the passage of the state law. It is probable that the salary of the present city treasurer will remain at $1,500, should it be carried that the state law was not passed until after the last election. If however, it was passed and became a law before the election it will be operative from that time and will affect the present year of Mr. Hoagland's incumbency.

The city council last night increased the bond of the city treasurer from $100,000 to $150,000, but deferred the matter of an ordinance increasing the treasurer's salary till the next meeting. The increase in the bond was adopted on recommendation of the finance committee. Chairman Dunbar of this committee stated in making the recommendation that the committee had been moved by the fact that City Treasurer Hoagland during his term of office will handle nearly $500,000 from the sale of bonds in addition to the regular funds of the office which amount to over $100,000 a month. The sale of the water extension bonds will involve the handling of $400,000, and the sale of the city hall extension bonds $50,000 more. There will also be about $15,000 worth of sewer extension bonds disposed of and other bonds amounting to $10,000 or $15,000.

Among those who will conduct departments and deliver lectures are Prof. A. J. Rickoff of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Prof. W. H. Miller, of Grand Junction; Prof. Crone of the Colorado South Normal school at Greeley; Superintendent Sutherland of the Teller county schools; President Z. X. Snyder of the State Normal school; President D. C. Aylesworth of the State Agricultural college, State Superintendent Helen M. Grenfell, of Denver; Superintendent Shafer of Cripple Creek; Superintendent Ball of Leadville, and Miss Wright of the State Normal school at Greeley, and a number of others. MORE BUILDINGS NEEDED AT THE Y. M. C. A. FARM

The regular quarterly meeting of the state committee of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building this evening at 7:30 o'clock. These meetings are usually held in Denver, but it was decided to hold the present meeting in this city. Among the chief matters to come up for consideration is the erection of more buildings at the Y. M. C. A. farm, located near Denver. It is understood more buildings are needed on the farm and the committee will consider ways and means for providing for them. The local members of the state committee are President W. F. Slocum of the college, Edward S. Parsons, dean of the college; Dr. John A. Tobinson, Rev. Benjamin Brewster and T. P. Barber.
